

Display Booth Hold Notes

Show Notes on the Exhibitor View

When you place a booth on hold, you can choose to display held notes in the exhibitor view of the floor plan. By default, existing notes are hidden, but you can update them to be visible.

Tip

Helpful Use Cases

If your show doesn't use our booth sales module, you can put a company's name on a booth. Similarly, if a show has a 'last sell' area, you can display why these booths are unavailable to exhibitors.

Manage booth hold notes in two ways: through Builder or from the Show Dashboard.

Access Builder

Access Builder through the Floor Plan dropdown on the Show Dashboard. Follow the path Show Dashboard > Floor Plan > Builder

The screenshot shows the EXPO MYS Show Dashboard. The top navigation bar includes the EXPO MYS logo, a user profile for Kelly H., and links for HELP and ADMIN HOME. The main navigation menu contains Dashboard, Exhibitors, Conferences, Floor Plan, Manage, Reports, and Sales. The 'Floor Plan' dropdown menu is open, showing options for Attendee View, Builder (circled in green), Exhibitor View, and Onsite Sales View. The 'Show Dashboard' title is visible on the left side of the dashboard area.
